Q2. Why did Arthur disagree with his wife?

Ans. Mr. Arthur Lewis always disagreed with his wife regarding the use of button unit offered by the stranger, Mr. Steward. In fact, he was a man of sound morality. He was clear that murder of a man, known, or unknown, far or near, is always a murder & a hideous crime. He was least fascinated by 50,000 dollars. This is the reason, he not only himself rejected the idea but also obstructed his wife very strictly & strongly so that she would not exercise it.

Q3. Why did Norma try to persuade her husband to agree with her?

Ans. Norma wife of Arthur Lewis was a greedy & ambitious lady. She listened from Mr. Steward, a stranger, that after pushing the button unit she would get 50,000 dollars. She wanted to have a tour of the world, a house on the island & other luxuries of life. She thought, it was the best chance for her to achieve all these things. Therefore, she persuaded her husband to agree with her.

Q4. What were the reasons Norma gave to her husband to accept the offer?

Ans. Norma gave these reasons to her husband to accept the offer. She said that it would be a research project. They just wanted to know the reactions of people what would they do under the circumstances.

Q5. Why did Mr. Steward continue persuading Norma?

Ans. In spite of the fact Norma refused to take the button unit, Mr. Steward not only put it beside her door but also kept on persuading her. In fact, he was a skilled person & expert in reading minds. He knew that the lady would ultimately fall victim to the offer she was fascinated by 50,000 dollars. Therefore, he continued persuading her & ultimately achieved his target.

Q6. What was the message Norma received on pushing the button?

Ans. After pushing the button, Norma received a phone call. It was from LEXON HILL HOSPITAL. She was informed about the subway accident. In which Arthur was pushed from the platform in front of the train. It means, she was intimated about death of her husband Arthur Lewis.
